show your support
Change your Facebook profile frame to let your friends know that you’re helping to raise awareness of SATB2-associated syndrome (SAS) and the 200+ children affected by this rare condition.

spread the word
We’re celebrating SATB2-Associated Syndrome Awareness Day on August 22 in honor of Dr. Zarate’s birthday, and we need your help. Use one of our sample posts to raise awareness, increase support, and encourage others to take action online using the hashtags #mySATB2kid and #showyourSAS

take some action
Help raise critical funds to support the SATB2 Gene Foundation to help fulfill the mission of raising awareness, supporting families and funding research for SATB2-Associated Syndrome.
